

An Update of Henry Tolman II's Survey of Insurance Cancellations
on United States Revenue
Stamps of the 1862-1875 Issues

(Including the first published census of stamps known to bear cancels listed in the Survey)

Known Insurance Cancels Dramatically Increased

Henry Tolman II published his pioneering survey of insurance cancels in 1984 and followed with an expanded edition in 1995.

He did all this before the widespread advent of the Internet and apparently without the aid of illustration tools such as Photoshop (he literally traced cancel images before rendering them in a sharper version for publication).

And yet, he was able to identify about 2,093 cancels attributed to some 714 companies. This Survey Update survey adds 138 companies and 1,508 new cancels – increases of 19.3% and 72%, respectively. Sources include collector contributions, copious Internet finds and my own collection. Of particular note, recent acquisitions from cancel collector Lawrence LeBel added two new companies, some 13 new cancels for known companies and more than 65 stamps with known cancellations that are different from previously identified denominations/names.

Photoshop specialist Herb Mitchell extracted the vast majority of the new cancels.

Tolman is not known to have published individual stamp cancel information. But his album pages, which listed the stamps he possessed and those he had confirmed, formed the basis of this Census – they numbered 5,099. My sources added 5,307 stamps – a 105% increase.

Tolman probably had access to only a fraction of the information now available about the companies. Based on current research, numerous corrections have been made to company names, attribution of cancels, etc.

The majority of officer and financial information comes from the 1868-1873 period.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

() – part of a company's formal title.

Alphabetization, Cancel Types – a company's handstamped cancels come first, then manuscript cancels, followed by embossed cancels.

Alphabetization, Companies – 831 of the 852 listed companies used "Ins." in their titles, making it a rather generic term.

So, companies are listed in a "Germania Ins.", "Germania Fire Ins." order. This does make for a few internal inconsistencies among cancels for a given company.

Stamp Type Legend (see below) – rather than use stamp catalog numbers (who easily remembers what an R43c is vs. an R49c?), abbreviations have been employed – such as 25¢ B. for Bond, 25¢ Cert. for Certificate, etc.

Type Numbers – Unlike railroad cancels, insurance cancels tend to have fairly uniform titles and abbreviations, etc.

So, rather than have an "A-1a, A-1a-1...A-1a-12" sameness, letter changes initially are made based on handstamped cancel shapes – double circle (D. C.) ex.: "A-1", single circle (S. C.) ex.: "A-1a", double ellipse (D. E.) ex.: "A-1b", single ellipse (S. E.) ex.: "A-1c", etc.

A. INS. CO. (old A-2)

BOSTON, MA

Research determined that the only "A" Ins. Co. in Boston during the period was the American Ins. Co; therefore, this cancel is now listed as Type A-22.

A-2 A. M. INS. CO. (old A-55)

Because of the strong similarity of this cancel's typeface and style to several A-51 cancel types, it is possible it belongs in that group; it is missing only a period after the "A" to likely fit there.

Re old A-7, old A-8, old A-9: Tolman inexplicably had separate listings for an Aetna Fire Ins. Co. of Hartford, CT, (old A-8), an Aetna Ins. Co. of Hartford (old A-7) and an Aetna Ins. Co. (old A-9) with no city location (despite the fact that several A-9 handstamps have Hartford in their wording). Yet his album pages had the same beginning year (1819) and Capital ($3,000,000) for the A-7 and A-8 listings. Research yielded no Aetna Fire in Hartford, but it is known that numerous companies with “Fire” in their titles used cancels without that word in them, and that numerous companies with only “Ins.” in their titles employed the word “Fire” in their cancels.

Therefore, several listings from the old A-7 and A-8 groups have been consolidated with some old A-9 listings under the new A-8 grouping below (see accompanying cancel type notes).

Tolman had several cancels listed under the Hartford, CT, firm (old A-9) despite the fact that they had New York or New York addresses in the cancels. Given that there was an Aetna Fire Ins. Co. in New York with different beginning dates/officers, those cancels have been merged here.

Because 21 out of the 23 handstamped cancel types listed in the Tolman Survey use the same A.M. Ins. Co. lettering and are all single or double circles, the listings below will maintain that general order, rather than having a confusing “A-54 through A-54-16” format for the single circles, for example.

The B-25b cancel listing is problematical because there is no "F" initial in it. But no "B" company in the Tolman Survey has just an M. M. in its initials, and numerous companies are known to have dropped Fire from their names in their handstamped cancels. Hence, B-2 may also belong here.

The only mention of this company that could be found was in an 1872 annual report of the Illinois Auditor of Public Accounts, which noted that the firm had $101,800 in capital as of Dec. 31, 1870. But it also noted that the state had filed a bill to dissolve the firm and appoint receivers after the Great Chicago Fire of 1871.

While the old C-23 cancels do not have Fire in their wording, the company actually appears to have used them as well as the old C-20 cancels. Annual state publications refer only to a Citizens Ins. Co. in Brooklyn, but a policy of the firm has Fire in the title and lists offices in New York (67 Wall Street) and in Brooklyn (18 Grand Street). So, the old C-20 and C-23 cancels have been combined in the listing below, in alphabetical order.

FARMERS MUTUAL FIRE INS. CO. (old F-12)

Tolman's album noted the Pennsylvania Mutual Horse Thief Detecting & Ins. Co. of York, PA (old P-47) probably was a division of the Farmers Mutual Fire Ins. Co. of York; it used a handstamp similar to the old F-12. The initials on P-47 (and, on old F-12) are those of Secy. David Strickler. But Tolman missed the connection between F-12 and the old F-14 company – whose secretary also was David Strickler. So, old F-12 has been merged into the new F-20 listings.

The striking similarity of old G-23 and G-23a cancels to old G-22a, 22a-1 and 22a-2 cancels (the G-23s lack only the word Fire) merits their being merged under the G-29 Globe Fire Ins. Co. listings. But with none on document in Tolman's collection or observed elsewhere, even the five printed cancels' inclusion in this New York City company's listings is hardly confirmed.

GREAT WESTERN INS. CO. (old G-31)

Given that this company's old G-31b cancel has been moved to the G-39 listings because it is identical to the old G-33c, and given that it is nearly identical to old G-31 and G-31-1, there is considerable likelihood that this company actually is the G-38 New York organization.

Old G-31d, with its G. W. M(utual) L(ife) initials, obviously does not belong under any Great Western Ins. Co. listing and has been given its own listing as G-43a.

Old L-14e had initials ...W. B., which were attributed to the company's treasurer. But no information could be found on that officer, so this cancel has been deleted.

In the only New Orleans City Directory found (1866) for the period, the L-20 company is listed at 45 Camp St. and the L-21 company as on Carondelet St. Yet the L-21b cancel lists it at 37 Camp St! And, there is no evidence of a Louisiana State Mutual Ins. Co. as identified in the L-21 and L-21a cancels! (Also, mutual companies usually reported assets but not capital.) Could the two companies have merged? Could Louisiana State have moved from Carondelet to Camp?

Because the old N-51 cancel is very similar in style to two cancels that can be attributed to the North American Fire Ins. Co. of Boston, it has been merged with the N-66 cancels. Also, the two examples of old N-51a are actually on documents of the Boston company. (Why Tolman ignored this is mystifying.) So, that manuscript cancel has also been shifted to the N-66 listings.
